RE-OPENING PLANS

As we finalise our Risk Assessments and submit our application to reopen the churches we ask you pray. To pray for God's blessing and wisdom to know what's best to do. To pray for those who are eager to come that they will not be disappointed and that those who choose not to return at this time will still know the presence of God where they are and when they join with us on Zoom.

We also ask you to familiarise yourself with the dates and guidelines that are being introduced to allow us to safely and cautiously return to offering Sunday worship within the charge of St Leonard's and St Mary's.

We are working towards reopening on Sunday 4th October

As well as working towards this proposed return date we are keeping an eye on the weekly COVID19 reports. As long as the infection rate does not rise to much in our area we will be good to go. If not then sadly we may have to delay opening. Likewise you will appreciate that once we open if things deteriorate we may have to close if any local or national lockdowns are imposed.

Sunday Dates:

During the Autumn/Winter Term we are planning to meet on the 1st and 3rd Sunday's at St Leonard's and 2nd and 4th Sunday's at St Mary's

Are you planning to Join us in-person at the Church building?

Answer NO: Please continue to join us on-line at home for Sunday worship at 10am using Zoom or Facebook Live

Answer Yes: Please follow these steps:

STEP 1: Register in advance

Each week we will ask you to contact the Church Office by Saturday 10am and register your intention to be in church on the following Sunday.

We have a limited number that we can accommodate and do not want to turn anyone away but sadly may have to.

STEP 2: Prepare for Sunday Worship

Please do pray for all those involved in the opening of the church and those responsible for leading worship. Pray for yourself and the congregation who will gather and for those who will join us on-line. Pray that God would touch and encourage us as we gather. Pray to asking that all the technical things may run smoothly.

STEP 3: Arriving at Church

The service will begin at 10am.

Please bring your face mask and arrive early enough to be welcomed and guided to your seat. You may need to queue and wait to enter. We ask you to do so remembering to keep a 2m Social Distance. Before entering please put on your mask and sanitise your hands with the sanitisers provided. A number of spare masks will be available but we encourage you to bring your own. Remember to refrain from any physical contact, a little wave or muffled hello will be welcomed.

A guide to our worship as we return.

If you can make it to church in person you will find that there will be many familiar things but also that a number of changes will be implemented during this current phase 3. This guide will hopefully help prepare you.

Once you or your family group have arrived at church. Please put on your mask and sanitise your hands. You will then be guided to a seating area. Filling the church from the front pews back towards the main door. Please stay in this area until requested to move forward for communion.

Although we plan to still have a selection of Hymns and Songs played during the service we ask those in church to refrain from singing.

(I believe it may be ok to be a bee and hum together or sing quietly to yourself behind your mask.)

We ask you too to refrain from any physical greetings at this time. We will however, share the Peace as part of our Liturgical worship but will not move from our seating area. Nevertheless a wave or gesture of peace can be given to those around you.

When receiving communion you will be invited to come forward to the Chancel Steps one pew at a time. Please sanitise your hands before receiving the bread, then lift your mask to consume the bread. After replacing your mask please sanitise your hands again before returning to your pew. The Priest on duty will also be following pastoral guidelines for this time governing the distribution.

At the end of the service we invite you to take the Pew Sheet away with you. People will be invited to exit the church from the back pew working forward. On exit please sanitise your hands and exit in an orderly fashion. Sadly there will be no refreshments served or time for fellowship or prolonged conversations.

LITTER PICKING DATE - Saturday 13th November

It was decided at our last meeting that we would plan to hold 4 litter picking events each year. The next one planned will be on Saturday 13th November 2020 at St Leonard's 1pm until 3pm. For those of you who like to be super organised the second one will be in the early spring at St Mary's on Saturday 6th February 2021.

These are great and simple ways that all of us can show our love for the environment and our community. So come along and get picking !

NEW OLD VESTS

We are currently sourcing used High Vis vests for our litter picking activities. Once acquired, we will wash and rename them with our church Eco Congregation name. We could easily buy them outright but we decided to live out our ethos and try and reuse existing ones that are surplus to requirement.

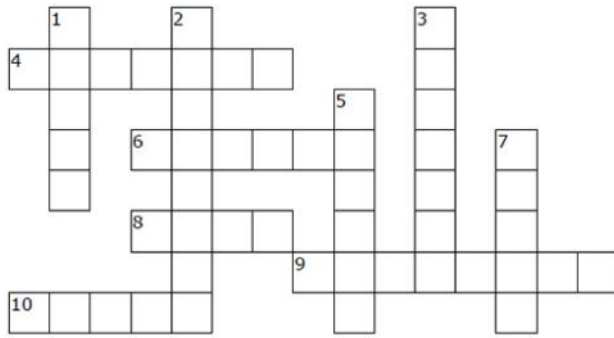

Vicki is attending an online panel discussion on the fashion industry, looking at current practice v sustainable and Eco Fashion. This has been organised by the Guardian newspaper on Friday evening. We look forward to hearing back from Vicki and to learn all about it. Hopefully if there are any good tips or companies to look out for or avoid we will let you know soon.

We will also be announcing the date of our next Eco film night very soon. You get to watch the film at your own leisure and then later join in with others on a Zoom discussion about the topic covered. So keep an eye out for what's up next.

£ End of the year! £

As a Charity the Church's financial year runs from October to September.

Our Treasures during this unusual year have done a great deal of work in the background paying the on-going bills and expenses and keeping an eye on the day to day finances. As a thank you to them it would be wonderful if when they do our end of year calculations that they discover that we are in the black and not the red. Please consider making a donation to the work of the church or to review your monthly giving. This will help us cover the costs of this year as sadly we have been unable to hold our usual fundraising events and concerts. Thank You for all your support and if you would like to help please speak to the Treasurers or contact the Church Office.

Izzy's News

Dear Friends,

It has been a wonderful week of helping others. I often have a sense of positive well-being when I get to help someone and hope that you too will take time to think of a friend or neighbour and support them where you can. After all in little acts of love we continue to live and act as Jesus followers loving and caring for one another.

Now I usually get into a lot of trouble for getting dirty but when Dad went round to help Jacqui and the doodles clear out an old coal cellar he came home messier than I have ever seen him. Once again I think he was working on a Sermon illustration about how sin sticks to us but then Jesus can wash us clean. I don't know about Jesus soap but he definitely spent longer in the shower after that one. The next time I went along to see what all the fuss was about and to catch up with all the news from Rosie, Teddy and Molly. They are very excitable pooches.

It was also lovely to go and see Betty too. I've been before so I knew where I was going so when the lift door opened I run up the corridor to find she had already opened the door for me. So we had a little dance around her flat and a cuddle on her chair. She said that was just what she was needing that day. So once again a little act of love goes a long way to help make a difference.

Sadly I wasn't allowed to go to the Hospital and see Shan but Dad shared my news with her and she sends her love to everyone at church. I hope she gets well soon.

SUNDAY 20th September

The Welcome Jacqui

The Lord be with you
And also with you

Hymn PRAISE, MY SOUL, THE KING OF HEAVEN;
To His feet thy tribute bring.
Ransomed, healed, restored, forgiven,
Who like thee His praise should sing?
Praise Him! Praise Him! Praise Him! Praise Him!
Praise the everlasting King!

Praise Him for His grace and favour
To our fathers in distress;
Praise Him, still the same forever,
Slow to chide, and swift to bless.
Praise Him! Praise Him! Praise Him! Praise Him!
Glorious in His faithfulness.

Father-like, He tends and spares us;
Well our feeble frame He knows;
In His hands He gently bears us,
Rescues us from all our foes.
Praise Him! Praise Him! Praise Him! Praise Him!
Widely as His mercy flows.

Angels in the height, adore Him;
Ye behold Him face to face;
Sun and moon, bow down before Him,
Dwellers all in time and space.
Praise Him! Praise Him! Praise Him! Praise Him!
Praise with us the God of grace!

Confession Jacqui / Peter

God is love and we are his children. There is no room for fear in love.
We love because he loved us first.
So let us confess our sins in penitence and faith.

God our Father, we confess to you and to our fellow members in the Body of Christ that we have sinned in thought, word and deed, and in what we have failed to do.

We are truly sorry.

Forgive us our sins, and deliver us from the power of evil, for the sake of your Son who died for us, Jesus Christ, our Lord.

*God, who is both power and love, forgive us and free us
from our sins, heal and strengthen us by his Spirit,
and raise us to new life in Christ our Lord. Amen.*

The Collect

Almighty God, you have created the heavens and the earth, and ourselves in your image. Teach us to discern your hand in all your works and to serve you with reverence and thanksgiving; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

A Reading from Matthew 20:1-16 Sandiann

Hear the Gospel of our Lord according to Matthew
Glory to Christ our Saviour

“The kingdom of heaven is like a landowner who went out early in the morning to hire workers for his vineyard. He agreed to pay them a denarius for the day and sent them into his vineyard.

“About nine in the morning he went out and saw others standing in the marketplace doing nothing. He told them, ‘You also go and work in my vineyard, and I will pay you whatever is right.’ So they went.

“He went out again about noon and about three in the afternoon and did the same thing. About five in the afternoon he went out and found still others standing around. He asked them, ‘Why have you been standing here all day long doing nothing?’ “‘Because no one has hired us,’ they answered. “He said to them, ‘You also go and work in my vineyard.’

“When evening came, the owner of the vineyard said to his foreman, ‘Call the workers and pay them their wages, beginning with the last ones hired and going on to the first.’

"The workers who were hired about five in the afternoon came and each received a denarius. So when those came who were hired first, they expected to receive more. But each one of them also received a denarius. When they received it, they began to grumble against the landowner. 'These who were hired last worked only one hour,' they said, 'and you have made them equal to us who have borne the burden of the work and the heat of the day.'

"But he answered one of them, 'I am not being unfair to you, friend. Didn't you agree to work for a denarius? Take your pay and go. I want to give the one who was hired last the same as I gave you. Don't I have the right to do what I want with my own money? Or are you envious because I am generous?'

"So the last will be first, and the first will be last."

Give thanks to the Lord for his glorious Gospel
Praise to Christ our Lord

Reflection Peter

Song MY LORD, WHAT LOVE IS THIS that pays so dearly,
That I, the guilty one, may go free!

*Amazing love, O what sacrifice,
The Son of God given for me.
My debt He pays, and my death He dies,
That I might live, that I might live.*

And so they watched Him die, despised, rejected;
But oh, the blood He shed, flowed for me!

And now, this love of Christ shall flow like rivers;
Come wash your guilt away, live again!

Intercessions for Today Val Cameron

The Peace

May the Peace of the Lord be always with you
and also with you.

Eucharistic Prayer Peter

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give him thanks and praise.

Worship and praise belong to you, in every place and at all times.

All power is yours. You created the heavens and established the earth; you sustain in being all that is.

In Christ your Son our life and yours are brought together in a wonderful exchange.
He made his home among us that we might for ever dwell in you.
Through your Holy Spirit you call us to new birth in a creation restored by love.

As children of your redeeming purpose
we offer you our praise with angels and archangels and the whole company of heaven,
singing the hymn of your unending glory:

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord,
God of power and might.
Heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

Glory and thanksgiving be to you, most loving Father,
for the gift of your Son born in human flesh.

He is the Word existing beyond time,
both source and final purpose,
bringing to wholeness all that is made.

Obedient to your will he died upon the Cross.
By your power you raised him from the dead.
He broke the bonds of evil and set your people free to be his Body in the world.

On the night when he was given up to death,
knowing that his hour had come,
having loved his own, he loved them to the end.

At supper with his disciples he took bread and offered you thanks.
He broke the bread, and gave it to them, saying:
'Take, eat. This is my Body: it is broken for you.'

After supper, he took the cup,
he offered you thanks, and gave it to them saying:
'Drink this, all of you.
This is my Blood of the new covenant;
it is poured out for you, and for all,
that sins may be forgiven.
Do this in remembrance of me.'

We now obey your Son's command.
We recall his blessed passion and death,
his glorious resurrection and ascension;
and we look for the coming of his Kingdom.
Made one with him, we offer you these gifts and with them ourselves, a single, holy, living sacrifice.

Hear us, most merciful Father, and send your Holy Spirit upon us and upon this bread and this wine, that, overshadowed by his life-giving power, they may be the Body and Blood of your Son, and we may be kindled with the fire of your love and renewed for the service of your Kingdom.

Help us, who are baptised into the fellowship of Christ's Body to live and work to your praise and glory; may we grow together in unity and love until at last, in your new creation, we enter into our heritage in the company of the Virgin Mary, the apostles and prophets, and of all our brothers and sisters living and departed.

Through Jesus Christ our Lord, with whom, and in whom,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all honour and glory be to you,
Lord of all ages, world without end.

Amen.

Breaking the Bread

The living bread is broken for the life of the world
Lord, unite us in this sign.

Lord's Prayer

As Christ has taught us so we pray

Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.

Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours now and for ever.
Amen.

Distribution of Communion

You may say this prayer as the Priest takes bread and wine on our behalf:

*God of mercy, we thank you for Jesus our Saviour,
Though we cannot consume the gifts of bread and wine this day, we thank you that we do receive your Holy Spirits presence,
the forgiveness of sins, and life eternal. Amen*

Prayer after Communion

Ruler of the universe,
all creation yearns for its fulfilment in your Son.
May we who have received the forgiveness of our sins,
be generous in our love as we grow into maturity in him.
This we ask in the name of the same Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen

Blessing

The peace of God, which passes all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of his Son, Jesus Christ our Lord: and the blessing of God almighty, the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, be among you and remain with you always. Amen

Hymn LORD, I LIFT YOUR NAME ON HIGH;

Lord, I love to sing Your praises.
I'm so glad You're in my life;
I'm so glad You came to save us.

You came from heaven to earth
to show the way,
From the earth to the cross,
My debt to pay.
From the cross to the grave,
From the grave to the sky,
Lord, I lift Your name on high.

Dismissal Jacqui

Go in peace to love and serve the Lord.
In the name of Christ. Amen

Remember to keep me safe for next weeks worship

SUNDAY 27th September

The Welcome

The Lord be with you
And also with you

Hymn AND CAN IT BE that I should gain
An interest in the Saviour's blood?
Died He for me, who caused His pain?
For me, who Him to death pursued?
Amazing love! how can it be
That Thou, my God, shouldst die for me?

'Tis mystery all! The Immortal dies:
Who can explore His strange design?
In vain the first-born seraph tries
To sound the depths of love divine!
'Tis mercy all! let earth adore,
Let angel minds inquire no more.

He left His Father's throne above,
So free, so infinite His grace;
Emptied Himself of all but love,
And bled for Adam's helpless race.
'Tis mercy all, immense and free;
For, O my God, it found out me.

Long my imprisoned spirit lay
Fast bound in sin and nature's night;
Thine eye diffused a quickening ray,
I woke, the dungeon flamed with light;
My chains fell off, my heart was free;
I rose, went forth, and followed Thee.

No condemnation now I dread;
Jesus, and all in Him, is mine!
Alive in Him, my living Head,
And clothed in righteousness divine,
Bold I approach the eternal throne,
And claim the crown, through Christ my own.

Confession Jacqui

from our sins, heal and strengthen us by his Spirit,
and raise us to new life in Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Collect

Grant, O merciful God, that your Church, being gathered by your Holy Spirit into one,
may show forth your power among all peoples,
to the glory of your name; through Jesus Christ our Lord,
who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

A Reading from Matthew 21:23-32 Jennie

Hear the Gospel of our Lord according to Matthew
Glory to Christ our Saviour

Jesus entered the temple courts, and, while he was teaching, the chief priests and the elders of the people came to him. "By what authority are you doing these things?" they asked. "And who gave you this authority?" Jesus replied, "I will also ask you one question. If you answer me, I will tell you by what authority I am doing these things. John's baptism, where did it come from? Was it from heaven, or of human origin?"

They discussed it among themselves and said, "If we say, 'From heaven,' he will ask, 'Then why didn't you believe him?'

But if we say, 'Of human origin', we are afraid of the people, for they all hold that John was a prophet."

So they answered Jesus, "We don't know." Then he said, "Neither will I tell you by what authority I am doing these things."

"What do you think? There was a man who had two sons. He went to the first and said, 'Son, go and work today in the vineyard.'

"'I will not,' he answered, but later he changed his mind and went.

"Then the father went to the other son and said the same thing.

He answered, 'I will, sir,' but he did not go.

"Which of the two did what his father wanted?"

"The first," they answered.

Jesus said to them, "Truly I tell you, the tax collectors and the prostitutes are entering the kingdom of God ahead of you. For John came to you to show you the way of righteousness, and you did not believe him, but the tax collectors and the prostitutes did. And even after you saw this, you did not repent and believe him.

Give thanks to the Lord for his glorious Gospel

Praise to Christ our Lord

Song LORD, I COME TO YOU,

Let my heart be changed, renewed,

Flowing from the grace that I found in You.

And Lord, I've come to know the weaknesses I see in me

Will be stripped away by the power of Your love.

Hold me close, let Your love surround me.

Bring me near, draw me to Your side.

And as I wait I'll rise up like the eagle,

And I will soar with You, Your Spirit leads me on

In the power of Your love.

Lord, unveil my eyes, let me see You face to face,

The knowledge of Your love as You live in me.

Lord, renew my mind as Your will unfolds in my life,

In living every day by the power of Your love.

Hymn

King of Kings, Majesty,
God of Heaven living in me,
Gentle Saviour, closest Friend,
Strong Deliverer, beginning and end.
All within me falls at Your throne,
Your Majesty, I can but bow,
I lay my all before You now.
In royal robes, I don't deserve.
I live to serve Your Majesty.

Earth and heaven worship You,
Love eternal, faithful and true,
Who bought the nations, ransomed souls,
Brought this sinner near to Your throne.
All within me cries out in praise!
Your Majesty, I can but bow,
I lay my all before You now.
In royal robes, I don't deserve.
I live to serve Your Majesty.
